

When The Time Comes. . . .

Remember: Mark 13:11

“Its not you speaking, but the Holy Spirit”

The Center: _____

The Charge: _____

The Call: _____

The Cry: _____

Practical Things:

1. Everything in our lives is meant to be used to _____ God.
2. A Holy Spirit led person will speak _____.
3. Holy Spirit led people will _____ others.
4. When we speak, we _____ with them.
5. Our talk will always lead to a _____.

Peter's Paradoxes:

God _____ Jesus, but He was a

_____.

Servant = an _____ Term for Messiah

He was their _____ but they _____

Him to Pilate.

They _____ the holy, innocent One for a _____.

They put to death the _____ while asking for the release of one who _____. But God raised Him.

The Holy Spirit will guide us to speak about the paradoxes of people's lives. The paradoxes will always surround what _____ has done and what _____ are doing (or have done).

After showing the enormity of our guilt, Peter offered

_____.

1. You acted in _____; now you must

_____.

2. You must _____ and _____.

Ill: Two sons in Matthew 21:28-31

Four Prompters of Repentance:

— _____ of God's Truth.

— Godly _____.

— God's _____.

— Personal _____ of _____.

What Will Happen?

1. Our sins will be _____.

2. Times of _____ will come

3. Our _____ is secure.

The question is not “IF” your time will come, but “When” your time will come. Every life situation is an opportunity to speak Jesus into the lives of other people.

Last week, we learned that we give away what we _____ to make _____ for Jesus.

Today, we learned that the Holy Spirit would give us what to say _____ the time comes.

Next week, we will learn we can't _____.